Comments: Interview Summary

Applicant thanks the examiner for the courtesy extended to applicants during a telephone discussion today on the need to file a notice of appeal to preserve the pendency of the above application. The examiner advised that since our response after final merely accepted the allowed claims, i.e. cancelled the rejected claims and did not amend the allowed claims, the response places the application in condition for allowance and the pendency of the application is preserved, i.e. that no further action is necessary. The examiner advised that the response was received but that the application was not released to be worked on at this time.

To the extent further information is required, please contact the undersigned at 215 323-1797.
